-The information furnished the APPEAL that Mr. J. H. Pullen had been appointed Register of Licenses was slightly inaccurate. His brother, Mr. B. K Pullen, jr., will succeed his father in that position.

-About 9 o'clock yesterday morning a boy, who went down into the cellar of Goodman & Barrett's trunk store to draw some asphalt, heard an explosion behind him and turning saw a flame licking out its tongue toward the floor. He ran through the store yelling fire and had not turned up at 4 o'clock. The damage was about $200.

The office of the Living Way, a weekly caper edited by the Rev. R. N. Countee, was broken into night before last and the type and other material thrown out of the windows. The person has had a rather stormy career. His residence on Dean avenue was assaulted by a mob several months ago, and he was obliged to flee in his night clothes to save his life. His war on secret societies has made him cordially hated by thousands.

-Mr. John C. Hook, president of the State Central Labor Union, re-turned home yesterday from Nashville, where he has been in attendance on the regular meeting of that body. Mr. Hook says it was the largest meeting of the kind ever held in the State, and indicates a repid and healthy growth of organized labor. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—John C. Hook, year: President—John C. Hook, Memphis; First Vice President—C B. THE SUMMER HAS ENDED.

Some Seasonable Suggestions for Memphis Citizens.

> The Summer, according to the Almanac, has ended, and it is time now to think of something else than how to escape the summer heat. Fall, with its change of climate and change of clothing, is coming.

For the change of clothing which is now necessary, the Misfit Clothing Parlors, No. 262 Second street, has long been preparing. We have not been idle during the hot months, and the result of our activity is that we are now better able than ever to offer great bargains to our customers. Our field has been extended and we will be able to offer larger assortments and still lower prices.

The Misfit Clothing Parlors are now offering a fine fall stock. It R. KUPFERSCHMIDT. you need Clothing be sure to call and inspect it. You may not need an entire suit. A coat or a pair of pants may be necessary to piece out your fall attire. Well, we have prepared for just such emergencies. We have New Fall Suits,
